HOW TO FISH THIS WEATHER

MORNING

- Shallow cover, points, creek mouths
- First light (first light CST) → ~9 AM
- Use any ripple as cover

MIDDAY

- Shade lines, docks, deeper edges
- Electronics for bait height first
- Slow down once the sun is overhead

EVENING

- Revisit shallow shade as sun drops
- Topwater if the surface lays down
- Weekday traffic is lighter — work quiet pockets

FALL TRANSITION Smallmouth plan: Go subsurface and a notch slower: edges of drop-offs, rocky points and bluff ends between the fall flats and the 20-40 ft winter depth; jerkbait with pauses, small jig or hula grub on the bottom, blade bait ripped off the bottom on points.

BIOLOGY

BASS STAGE

Smallmouth are in the late fall transition — water in the low-to-mid 50s, so they are staging on drop-off edges, points and bends between their summer spots and the deep wintering holes.

Basis: estimated water ~49°F — statewide median of 26 lake estimates from the observed air

NATURAL FORAGE

Yellow perch, crayfish, and smelt (on deeper western lakes) fill the menu. Match the bait you see.

ALSO BITING

Landlocked salmon · brook trout. On western mountain lakes nearby, salmon and brook trout cruise shallower.

PRESSURE

Weekday traffic — lighter than the weekend. Fish early, give ramps and swim areas room.

record (NOAA ACIS) — no coordinates on file for this lake; no water-temperature gauge on the lake; air record trending falling

ACCESS — BANK / KAYAK / BOAT

BANK

Bank access on Wyman Lake is mostly at the public launch and any posted shoreline next to it. Arrive early, park clear of the trailer lane, and fish the nearest rocky edge or riprap where it is posted open. At first light, cast a small walking bait or a tube along that edge.

KAYAK

Launch at the public ramp on Wyman Lake and stay close to shore on the first paddle. Work the nearest points, boulder edges, and the first drop-off with a tube, a Ned rig, or a small swimbait, and move only as far as you can still see the ramp in a rising breeze.

BOAT

Launch at the public trailer ramp on Wyman Lake and clear the dock quickly so the next trailer can launch. From late morning to midafternoon after cold nights, fish rocky points and the first deep break with a tube, a jerkbait, or a drop-shot, and graph for bait before you make a long move.

LURE BOX

TOP

Walking bait on calm points. Small popper along rock at dusk. Streamer or small spoon near the surface for salmon.

MID

Suspending jerkbait on points. Small silver spoon trolled or cast along drops. Swimbait counted down off rock piles.

BOTTOM

Tube dragged on rock. Drop-shot for marked fish. Ned rig along boulder edges.
