HOW TO FISH THIS WEATHER

MORNING

- Shallow cover, points, creek mouths
- First light (6:51 AM EST) → ~9 AM
- Use any ripple as cover

MIDDAY

- Shade lines, docks, deeper edges
- Electronics for bait height first
- Slow down once the sun is overhead

EVENING

- Revisit shallow shade as sun drops
- Topwater if the surface lays down
- Weekday traffic is lighter — work quiet pockets

FALL TRANSITION Largemouth plan: Slow down: steep points, channel drops and remaining grass just outside the creeks, between the fall flats and the 15-30 ft winter depth; suspending jerkbait with long pauses, jig-and-pig or blade bait crawled down the slope.

BIOLOGY

BASS STAGE

Largemouth are in the late fall transition — water under the mid-50s, so bass are sliding off the shallow flats toward steeper points and channel drops near their fall feeding areas.

Basis: estimated water ~49°F — 75-day observed air record (NOAA ACIS) lagged for a lake (14-day response); no water-temperature

NATURAL FORAGE

What they are eating: Yellow perch, smaller baitfish, and crayfish on rock. In the weedy bays, largemouth are feeding on perch and sunfish along the remaining green edges.

ALSO BITING

Northern pike patrol the weed edges in Malletts Bay and Shelburne Bay and will hit spinnerbaits, so bring pliers and a leader if you target them. Yellow perch are a good family option along weed edges on the calm.

PRESSURE

Weekday traffic — lighter than the weekend. Fish early, give ramps and swim areas room.

ACCESS — BANK / KAYAK / BOAT

BANK

Public shoreline at Oakledge Park, the Perkins Pier waterfront, and posted Colchester and Malletts Bay access areas put rock, docks, and weed edges within a short walk. Verify posted access and leave trailer lanes alone. Fish the shorelines facing away from the west wind with a tube or Ned rig between showers.

KAYAK

Launch at Perkins Pier, the Shelburne Bay Access Area, or the Malletts Bay Access Area depending on which shoreline is in the lee. Is the best paddle day of the three once the cold morning breaks.

BOAT

Run from the Malletts Bay Access Area and fish protected rock and weed edges between showers. Start around mid-morning on Colchester and Burlington rock with a jerkbait, then slide to deeper rock-to-weed breaks in 12 to 20 feet with a drop-shot or tube.

LURE BOX

TOP

Walking bait on calm sunny mornings over rock. Small popper on protected points. Buzzbait only on overcast, breezy afternoons.

MID

Suspending jerkbait (ghost minnow / perch) on cold mornings. Small swimbait on a light head along rock. Spinnerbait on windy points.

BOTTOM

Tube (green pumpkin / smoke) dragged on rock. Ned rig on gravel flats. Drop-shot with a small minnow or goby profile.
